BOOKING PROCESS

Upon enquiring, I ask that you let me know the following information so I can provide you with a proposal; Wedding date, location of where you will be getting ready, how many people it will be for and your ceremony time. Please note that I have a maximum booking limit of 4 to ensure that my work is always done at the highest standard.

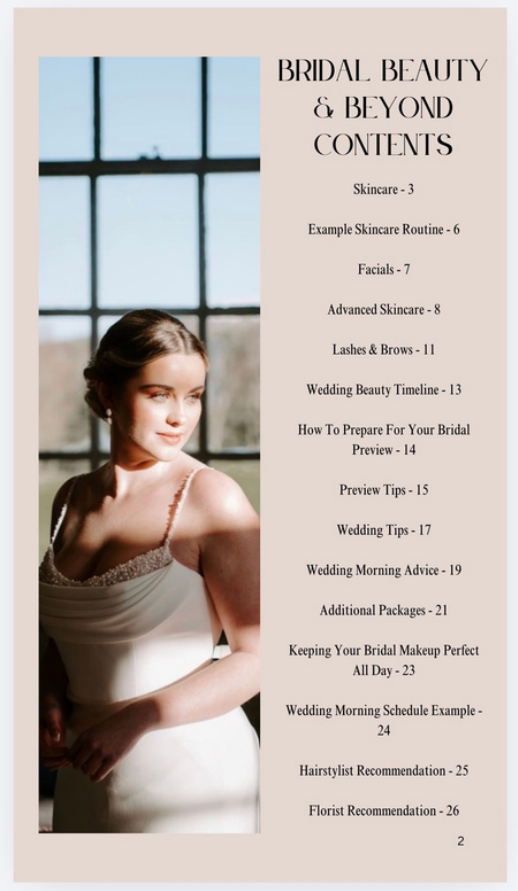

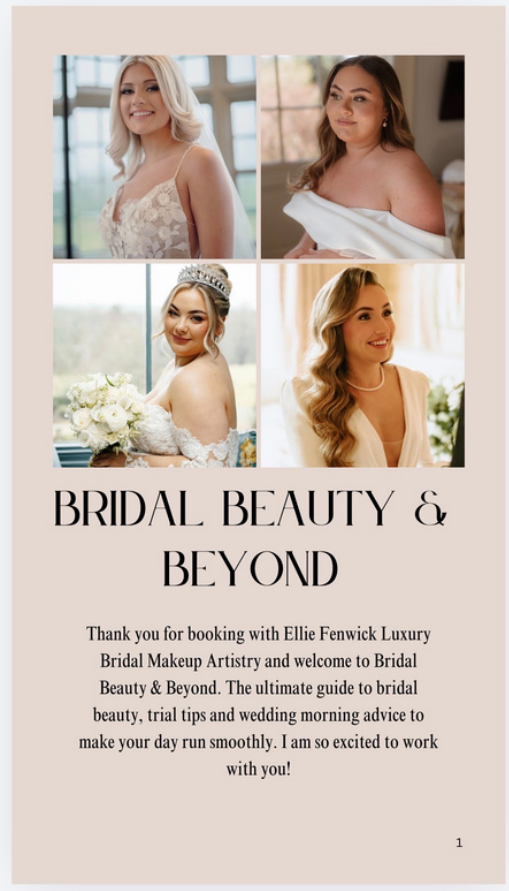

However, if you have a larger bridal party, I do have an additional MUA that I can bring (depending on availability), in this case there will be an additional MUA fee. If after discussions you would like to confirm your booking with me as your bridal MUA, a signed agreement is required as well as a £75 booking fee which secures your date and then comes off your remaining balance. Please note that no booking is secured until these are received.

ONCE BOOKING IS CONFIRMED

Once booking is confirmed, you will receive my exclusive bridal guide, filled with expert advice on skincare, beauty preparation, wedding morning tips and everything you need to feel fully prepared for your big day.

You will also have my unlimited support. Whether you need skincare advice, lash recommendations, supplier suggestions or simply reassurance throughout the planning process, I’m always just a message away.

BRIDAL PREVIEW

Bridal Previews are compulsory to ensure we have created your perfect, bespoke bridal look prior to your wedding day. Previews are also available for bridesmaids and mothers of the bride / groom. Your preview is where we create your bespoke bridal look, tailored perfectly to your features, dress, styling and overall wedding vision.

Enjoy a glass of fizz while we perfect every detail, followed by my exclusive Bridal Portrait Session using my professional camera so you can see exactly how your makeup will photograph.

Bridal preview appointments are held in my beautiful home studio.

ON THE DAY

You'll receive a professionally planned wedding morning schedule well in advance, ensuring plenty of time for photographs, getting dressed and enjoying every moment without feeling rushed.

I will get in touch a few weeks before to confirm that all agreed plans are still correct. When I arrive I will set up my kit ready for my first client and I will work with your hairdresser to ensure everyone's hair and makeup is completed on time and everything runs smoothly.

I always make sure that all my clients are ready at least 1.5 - 2 hours before the ceremony time or the time you need to leave your getting ready location.

PRE CEREMONY

Once your makeup is complete, you'll receive a beautifully presented luxury touch up kit including decanted versions of your chosen lip colour, loose powder, foundation touch up brush, sponge, powder puff, makeup remover essentials and a few extra bridal treats.

Your bridal party will also receive their own touch up essentials.

Unlike many artists, I remain with you until it's time to leave.

Whether it's happy tears, a lipstick refresh, final powder touch ups or simply helping to keep everyone calm, I'll be there to ensure everything looks absolutely perfect before you walk down the aisle.

My brides often joke that I'm their "Wedding Fairy Godmother" because I'm always on hand to help with whatever the morning brings—whether that's calming nerves, fluffing dresses, pinning veils or solving last minute problems before they become stressful.

ADDITIONAL PACKAGE

Pre ceremony touch ups are included in your bridal package. However if you would require me to stay until after your ceremony for touch ups ahead of your wedding photos, this is an additional package that can be added to your booking. This is an additional £100 for no later than 1.5 hours after the ceremony start time. Full day touch ups including a change up of look for your evening reception is available for an additional £350.

TESTIMONIALS

Honestly couldn't recommend Ellie more, she genuinely cares so much about her work and her clients. She made me feel comfortable from the moment I met her and was so easy going when I wanted to change anything. She was also very communicative with me from booking to the day itself, always responding quickly to messages and giving me hints and tips along with doing research to get me the exact lip colour I wanted. She really is the best and I need more functions in the future to book her again!

Ellie was truly the best makeup artist we could have asked for! From the trial to the wedding day, nothing was too much trouble. She was incredibly accommodating with all of my bridesmaids — from one who wanted full coverage glam to another who preferred a very minimal, natural look. She made every single one of them feel amazing.

What really set Ellie apart was how she went above and beyond. She stayed right up until the ceremony for final touch-ups, helped me put on my jewellery, and even took extra photos and videos, capturing moments I'll treasure forever. Her talent, calm presence, and genuine care made such a difference on the day.

I couldn't recommend Ellie more. She's an absolute star!

Ellie was a pleasure to work with before and on the day. Starting at the trial she explained in detail everything she was doing and made me feel heard and safe. She recommended products for my skin also. On the day she had everyone's makeup completed on time and looking fabulous. She stayed with me to touch up the look through the teary-eyed reveals with my bridal party and only left when I was walking down the aisle. She was fun and friendly, really joining in with the atmosphere.

Thank you so so so much for your amazing work! Me and my bridesmaids looked and felt absolutely beautiful all day.
